Choose one of the current event articles to read. Once you are finished reading, summarize what the article is about. Your summary should be at least 5 sentences and include only the most important details. Be sure to proofread your summary. Ask yourself the following questions.

Do all of my sentences start with capital letters?

Do all of my sentences end with the appropriate punctuation?

Do all of my sentences read correctly?

Have I captured the main idea in my writing?

Are the details I included important?
