Option 2: Haiku Poem. A Haiku is a Japanese poem that includes 3 lines. The first line has 5 syllables, the second line has 7 syllables, and the third line has 5 syllables. The subject of your poem can be anything. Here is an example of a Haiku poem.

School is Over

The class is vacant
The bright sun is beaming high
Summertime is here

Option 3: Shape Poem. A shape poem is a poem that takes on the shape of the thing you are writing about. Whatever you decide to write about, make sure you can draw it! Here is an example of a shape poem.

"Rain,
Rain. Go away.
Come again another day."
Rain, Rain. Go away! Rain, Rain.
You make me sad. Rain, Rain. You make Me mad. Rain, Rain. You make the roads slick and wet.
Rain, Rain. You make my hair a big mess. Rain, Rain. You tend to make me quite upset. Rain, Rain. I like you less and less.
