AMY BOCKERSTETTE'S FOUNDATION

Amy Bockerstette is a golfer.

Amy is a person with Down syndrome.
Amy is from Phoenix, Arizona.

Amy and her family started a foundation.

A foundation is a group that helps others.
Amy’s foundation is the I GOT THIS Foundation.

The Foundation started in 2019.

The Foundation helps people with special needs.
The Foundation helps people play golf.

People can try their best.

They can say, "I got this!"
PHOENIX FISH WRAPS

Serves 4

NEED

- 12-oz can tuna in water, drained
- 2 T mayonnaise
- 1 T taco seasoning
- ¼ C diced onion
- ¼ C diced celery
- 2 large romaine lettuce leaves
- 2 (10-in) flour tortillas
- medium bowl
- spoon
- sharp knife

NOTE: Always consider student food allergies when preparing recipes.

May 18, 2020
1. Put tuna, mayonnaise, taco seasoning, onion and celery into bowl. Stir.

2. Put 1 lettuce leaf across each tortilla.

3. Put half of tuna mixture onto each lettuce leaf.
4. Fold in sides of each tortilla.

5. Roll up each tortilla from bottom to top.

6. Watch adult cut each tortilla into halves.

7. Eat.
Knock, Knock.

Who's there?

Amy.

Amy who?

Amy to try your best!
I have a joke!

Tell me!

What is a golfer’s favorite letter?

I don’t know. What?

T!

T!
Choose the pictures about AMY BOCKERSTETTE’S FOUNDATION.

- try
- golf
- foundation
- wedding
- best
- toothbrush
1. WHAT is the paper about?

2. WHO is a golfer?

3. WHERE is Amy Bockerstette from?
WHAT is your favorite sport?

- golf
- swimming
- volleyball
- baseball
- something else